Dear Jack,

I am writing to you to advise you that the College has deferred a decision on a new telephone system until the new financial year.

In so doing I must take advantage of the opportunity to thank you for the very comprehensive advice and guidance that you have provided during our deliberations. We appreciate the unstinting approach you adopted and the extremely friendly and professional attitude you displayed throughout. Please be assured that our decision has been taken for purely internal reasons and does not reflect on the product you were offering us. I will, of course, contact you as soon as we decide to resurrect the project to invite you to bring your quotation up to date. In the meantime I would just mention that the pager system is working a treat, though the caretaker is getting a little fed up of the beeper going off while he's got his trousers down (so to speak)!

Please keep in touch.

With every good wish,

Yours faithfully,

David Egerton
